

The screenshot shows the GeM (Government e Marketplace) website dashboard. The top navigation bar includes links for Dashboard, Market, Forward Auction, Bids, Purchase Requisitions, and Users. The user is logged in as Uday Kumar. A notification banner is displayed with the following text:

NOTIFICATIONS

Dear Sir/Ma'am,

- The option of acceptance/ rejection of Direct Purchase/ L1 orders will be discontinued on GeM from 29th July 22 onwards. All the orders placed on GeM shall be auto accepted unless the buyer is red flagged or the order is for a freight intensive item. Only in these cases, the sellers will get an option to Accept/ Reject the order. Even in these cases, the order shall be auto accepted in 5 days if no action is taken by the seller.
- The functionality for the collection of interest amount on the delayed payments as per DoE OM No.F.6/18/2019-PPD dated 3rd July 2020 is being made live from 01st August 2022, which would be applicable on all CRAC issued/generated on or after 01st August 2022. If the payment is delayed beyond prescribed timelines, the buyer will be liable to deposit interest as per DoE OM. Interests due showing in the Buyer dashboards for older contracts are being reset to zero and all future interests would have to be paid using online functionality deployed on the GeM using the SBI payment gateway.

Ask GeMmy read DO from CEO GeM regarding misuse of Custom / BoQ based bids.

DPE and L1 purchase for multiple consignees is not allowed. Buyer can add multiple consignees during bid creation.

The taskbar at the bottom shows various application icons and the system tray with the date 27-07-2022 and time 11:29.

Followed by OM issued by DoE, Govt. of India

DPE_OM_dated_GeM-penalty on late payment.pdf